

BACCES 2019 Snow White & Queen(disguised)

Inside the Dwarf's Cottage

(there's a knock at the door)

SW Hello. Who's there?

Queen I'm just an old pedlar woman my dear

SW I'm afraid I can't let you in – my friends said I mustn't open the door to anyone

Queen Quite right, you never know what danger is lurking, but your friends are my friends too. They're such friendly, little chaps, and so trustworthy

SW Oh yes, they're wonderful

Queen Since you cannot open the door, why not come to the window. What harm could that do?

SW I suppose that would be ok

(SW opens the window)

Queen Could I possibly have a drink of water my dear

SW Of course, still or sparkling? Ice and lemon?

Queen Just a still Highland Spring will be fine

SW I'm afraid we don't have that anymore, but I have another brand

Queen (takes a sip and starts coughing) It's rather salty. Something smells tasty

SW I'm cooking roast beef for the dwarfs' dinner

Queen And what will they have for dessert?

SW I haven't really thought about that yet

BACCES 2019 Snow White & Queen(disguised)

Queen I have some lovely, delicious apples here. You could make them apple crumble. Would you like to try one my dear? They taste blissful

SW No thank you, but they do look delicious

Queen Oh yes they are, particularly this one. It's a magic, wishing apple. Surely there must be a wish close to your young heart?

SW Well yes there is actually

Queen Go on then, take a bite and make a wish

SW I'm not sure, should I boys and girls

Audience No!!

Queen Don't listen to them, they're just jealous. Close your eyes and wish for your hearts desire

SW Ok then
(she takes a bite and collapses)

Queen Ha, ha not so beautiful now Snow White – just drop dead gorgeous
